ABOUT SAGEMONT PREPARATORY

Founded in 1996, Sagemont Preparatory School is a private, college-preparatory school in Weston, Florida, serving students in a close-knit K-12 community. Sagemont Prep combines a rigorous academic program with opportunities for experiential, project-based, and interdisciplinary learning. Our small school environment allows students to pursue individual interests, develop their strengths, and engage meaningfully with faculty and peers, while giving students opportunities to lead, create, compete, and explore.

Sagemont Prep prepares students not only for success in college, but also to approach complex problems with curiosity, creativity, independence, and purpose. Across the curriculum, students are encouraged to connect academic learning to real-world applications and to develop the confidence to explore ideas.

SAGEMONT PREP EDUCATIONAL PILLARS

At Sagemont Prep, students are encouraged to take ownership of their learning. Our educational pillars—Intellectual Curiosity & Creativity, Analytical Thinking & Problem Solving, Collaboration, Responsible Risk-Taking, and Reflection—guide students as they develop the skills to investigate ideas, solve problems, work with others, and apply what they learn.

FOCUS ON INNOVATION, ENTREPRENEURSHIP, & REAL WORLD LEARNING

Through project-based and interdisciplinary learning, entrepreneurship, internships, and independent research, Sagemont Prep students apply their knowledge beyond the classroom.

Experiences include designing solutions for the cities of tomorrow, pitching business concepts, exploring hands-on engineering, and managing our student-run café, Pride Rock.

OPPORTUNITY & GROWTH BY DESIGN

Sagemont Prep students connect academic learning with both professional and community experiences.

Through executive internships, clinical medical rotations, community partnerships, and other hands-on experiences, students explore potential fields of study while engaging with authentic projects, academic research, and professional environments.

COLLABORATION WITH THE LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

During the LSE Entrepreneurship Summit, in partnership with the London School of Economics, students are immersed in a world typically reserved for accomplished leaders and top-tier innovators.

This elite entrepreneurship summit connects students with LSE scholars and industry visionaries through masterclasses, fireside dialogues, and design challenges.

Academic PROFILE

2026-2027

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

One half-credit is assigned per semester course and one credit per full-year course. Students generally take 7 courses per semester and must complete a minimum total of 25 academic credits from 9th-12th grade and 100 hours of community service to receive a diploma. These requirements allow for considerable choice while ensuring a challenging and balanced academic schedule.

TRANSCRIPT & GRADING

- Ranking: Sagemont Prep does not rank students.
- Point Scale: Courses are graded on a 100-point scale, including ALL Honors and Advanced Placement courses.
 - Weighting: Beginning with the 2026-2027 academic year, Sagemont Prep implemented a weighted grading system. In the weighted G.P.A., Honors courses receive an additional 3 grade points, while Advanced Placement courses receive an additional 5 grade points.
- Assessments: Coursework incorporates both formative and summative assessments.
- High School Level/AP Courses in Middle School: Advanced learners may access high school-level coursework in middle school, with exceptionally prepared eighth-grade students eligible to pursue Advanced Placement courses. These courses are clearly labeled on the transcript.

BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

Sagemont Prep students are encouraged to take ownership of their extracurricular pursuits and contribute to the school community beyond the classroom. Many of Sagemont Prep's clubs and organizations are proposed and created by students themselves. Our small-school environment gives students the opportunity to turn interests into initiatives and assume meaningful leadership.

- 47 student clubs and organizations hosted
- 17 varsity sports offered

Honor Societies & Academic Organizations: Students may pursue membership in several nationally-recognized honor societies and academic organizations recognizing achievement in areas including scholarship, mathematics, science, language arts, social studies, world languages, and the performing arts.

COLLEGE COUNSELING OFFICE

Sagemont Prep provides highly individualized counseling throughout the high school experience and application process. Students receive guidance in college exploration, academic planning, testing, application strategy, essays, recommendations, and financial aid.
