

ATTENDANCE

Florida compulsory school attendance law requires students to be in attendance a minimum of 170 school days, regardless of excused absences, and receive a minimum of 900 hours of instruction (FL Administrative Code 6A-1.09512). The Sagemont School student may not be absent more than 10 days in the school year 2019/2020 to be awarded course credit as shown below:

- Minimum 136 hours of course instruction – annual credit
- Minimum 68 hours of course instruction - semester credit

Note: Students who do not meet these minimum requirements will not receive credit for the courses taken and will have to re-take the classes online. Tardiness or missing a specific class counts as an absence for that class (see below).

Very Important

If a student is absent from school, a parent/guardian is asked to call the school within 24 hours in order for the absence to be excused. The following are considered excused absences. All other absences are considered an Unexcused Absence to be counted against the 10 maximum allowable missed days.

- Student illness
- Medical appointment
- Death in family
- Observance of a religious holiday or service when it is mandated for all member of a faith that such holiday or service be observed.
- School sponsored event.
